Formal Complaint

John McKeekhan vs. Louisville Gas & Electric

Page 2 of 2

Two years later, I received a bill for $5000⁰⁰ from LG&E for 319 M Street for service incurred after I told them to turn off service. I disputed the bill then and had been told that the gas had been left on when "service was disconnected" they said it was because the gas meter was in the cellar. I know that the gas could have been turned off elsewhere. (Don't)

Wherefore, complainant asks

(Specifically state the relief desired.)

removed, and that all harassment and threats of leaving me & my family (wife & 4 children) in the dark when the residence's bill has been paid in full.
